

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ARNOLD S. PETERS,

Plaintiff,

No. C 08-5022 PJH

ORDER

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION,

Defendant.

15 On November 4, 2008, plaintiff filed the nearly 200-page complaint in this case, 16 and the clerks office for this court subsequently characterized the case as a social 17 security appeal. Plaintiff also filed a request to proceed in forma pauperis. Much of 18 plaintiff's complaint is incomprehensible; however, based on plaintiff's allegations, it 19 appears to the court that this case may have been improperly characterized as an 20 appeal. Plaintiff is advised that a social security appeal requires a final decision by an 21 administrative law judge or "ALJ" denying him disability benefits pursuant to 42 U.S.C.
22 § 405(g).

23 The standards for evaluating plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis
24 differ depending on whether plaintiff is appealing a decision of an ALJ or is filing a civil 25 complaint alleging certain claims in the first instance. Accordingly, plaintiff is ORDERED
26 to file with this court no later than Wednesday, November 26, 2008, a written 27 statement clarifying the nature of his complaint, and specifically, stating whether he has 28 already appeared before an ALJ in this matter, and whether he is appealing an

1 ALJ's denial of his application for social security benefits. If plaintiff is not appealing the 2 denial of social security benefits but is instead attempting to sue a public agency for civil 3 rights violations, he must file an amended complaint setting forth the factual and legal
4 bases for his claims. Additionally, plaintiff is further ORDERED to identify with more 5 precision who he is suing, as his current complaint does not enable a process server to 6 find the defendant. If plaintiff is suing on claims that are not an appeal of alleged 7 error(s) committed by an ALJ, then the court will screen plaintiff's complaint under 28
8 U.S.C. § 1915.

9 A ruling on plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis will be deferred
10 until the court receives either clarification or the amended complaint.

11 IT IS SO ORDERED.
